BEST BET OF DAY

Race # 1

(3) FIRST FORAY

She's been knocking on the door finishing second her last two starts, against what seemed to be tougher spots. She comes out of the hottest barn at PID and gets the Meet's Leading Pilot today. Her tactical speed looks to be an advantage here in this spot, as she is versatile enough to be on the engine if she inherits lead, which is extremely possible here today. In addition she gets to go back to PA Breds, which is a big plus.

(2) WILD DELIGHT

She's been putting solid speed figures each time, and always showing up for Trainer Mike Rogers. She loses regular Rider Martina Rojas to injury, but picks up the new kid on the block, "Victor Severino" who has been riding absolutely lights out. This mare has a ton of speed, and Severino needs to lay just off the pace today, as "Every little Bit" will most certainly press the pace, and may in fact set it, and that's the only concern. As far as the rest, they will have play catch me if you can with her.
